Great Procession Headed by Fifty Altar Boys Includes Many Church Dignitaries.

PRELATE BORN HERE.

His Work in Society for Propagation of the Faith Won Recognition of Rome.

In the presence of a great gathering of many of the highest dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church and a crowd of 6,000 persons, The Right Rev. John Joseph Dunn was to-day consecrated as Titular Bishop of Camuliana and as Auxiliary Bishop of New York, in St. Patrick's Cathedral. by Archbishop Patrick J. Hayes.

So great was the crowd which assembled to obtain seats after the 3.500 special ticket holders had been ushered to their places in the body of the edifice, that Police Inspector Underhill detailed a force of 150 patrolmen, ten sergeants and two captains to keep the approaches to the Cathedrai clear.

As a precaution against any demonstration by anarchists or others, detectives under Detective Sergeants Geran and Brown made a thorough search of the Cathedral from the front doors to the organ loft, the chancel, confessionals and stalls. When this had been completed the lerical procession formed at the Thedral Chapel, Madison Avenue id 52d Street, and marched to the athedral.

Thirty detectives, including several ombers of the Bomb Squad, were scattered through the congregation and there were plain-clothes men at very entrance.

The clerical procession was led by filly altar boys, after whom came the pupils of the Cathedral College, Madison Avenue and 51st Street, and 300 som Avenue and 51st Street, and 200 SEARCH MARSHES efergy, the diocesan clergy and 500 seminarians. Then came the regular provincials of religious orders. Thirtyfive Right Reverend Monsignora and seventeen Bishops preceded Archbishop Hayes, after whom walked Elshop-elect Dunn, surrounded by a detail of Knights of St. Gregory and bilowed by the cross-bearer and the ministers of the mass.

The officers of the mass of conseration were: Archbishop Hayes, assisted by the Right Rev. John J. Missing Legs of Body Sought O'Connor of Newark and the Right llev. Joseph H. Conroy, Titular Hishop of Arindela and Auxiliary tishop of Ogdensburg. The preacher

LETS BANKER GO TO JAIL FOR BAD ONE

Mrs. Hauck Changes Mind After Judge Offered Leniency for Restitution.

If Mrs. George K. Hauck, wife of a banker at No. 110 West 42d Street. had not changed her mind at the last minute and stopped payment on her out in restitution for a bad check uttered by her husband, he would' not have had to go to the penitentiary. But Judge Rosalsky in General Sessions, learning she had done. this, saying she had been advised to have nothing more to do with her husband, sent Hauck to Blackwell's Island to-day for a term of from six months to three years.

Hauck, whose wife was the widow of a rich United States Senator from New Jersey, lived with her on an extensive estate at Stone Harbor, N. J. He drew a bad check for $1,900 on the Commonwealth Bank of Baltimore last July and through the influence of a man who used to be employed in the Guaranty Trust Company had it cashed at that institution. He was arrested, extradited and then pleaded guilty.
